

Our Vision

Pathway for Healing envisions that every wounded child have a strong and healthy family, equipped to facilitate healing.

Our Mission

By using proven research and effective methods, we will provide attachment focused support, resources, education, and training for families and the professionals who support them.

Goals

- To treat every person with dignity and respect
- To come alongside and support parents of wounded children
- To educate and train parents in the therapeutic parenting method that best meets the needs of their child
- To educate and train professionals to support families of a wounded child

Contact Us.

423.762.1314

pathwayforhealing.com

/ PathwayForHealing

/ PFHealing

PATHWAY
for HEALING

Practical Resources and Hope for Hurting Families

Be a part of what Pathway for Healing is doing in the lives of others.

Volunteer at future camps. No one understands like you do.

Communicate what we do to others who are seeking help.

Help us connect to your friends, church, or other organizations.

Partner with us to provide:

- Prayer Support
- Regular Monthly Financial Support
- Gifts to our scholarship fund
- One-time gifts
- Donation of items on our “needs” list

“Our family was emotionally depleted, with no plan, no peace, and no hope. Now, we are completely different people, living a completely different life. Pathway for Healing’s camp was life-altering for our family and, without a doubt, the best decision we have ever made.”

The impact camp has had on your family and the heart of your wounded child is a great testimony. Your church or support community knows your journey. They will celebrate your success upon your return, and may also consider making us a part of their giving or home missions program (we are a registered 501(c)(3), all gifts are tax deductible). We ask you to consider approaching them on our behalf. If your church or organization would like to support Pathway for Healing, please contact Jerry Harwood, camp coordinator.

Since we began, Pathway for Healing has done extraordinary work with children and families that were hurting and desperately needed hope.